Calming the Storm:

MIDDLE EAST PEACEMAKING IN A TURBULENT TIME

Join Middle East peace advocates from across the country and a range of Christian churches to: learn about opportunities for Israeli-Palestinian peacemaking in the context of broader regional dynamics and with the Bush Administration's initiative to move the peace process forward in 2008; and lobby Congress with up-to-date specific talking points designed to make your voice heard.

At the CMEP conference, Church leaders, issue analysts and policy experts will provide important insights and updates and prepare conference participants to meet with elected officials.

Churches for Middle East Peace, a coalition of 22 U.S. churches and church-related organizations, is positioned to guide church members and clergy in effective advocacy grounded in the principles of our faith. CMEP will help arrange your meetings with your Representative and Senators.
